Breath Healing Balsams

Hyomei, the Guaranteed Catarrh Cure, Endorsed by Physicians.

No one should confound Hyomei with the patent medicines that are advertised to cure catarrh. It is as superior to them all as the diamond is more valuable than cheap glass. Their composition is secret, but Hyomei gives its formula to all reputable physicians.

Its base is the famous eucalyptus oil, well known for its antiseptic qualities. This is combined with aromatic and healing gums and balsams, making a pure liquid which, when used in the Hyomei pocket inhaler, fills the air you breathe with germ killing, disease destroying and healing powers that restore health to every part of the throat, nose and lungs.

Hyomei is endorsed by physicians generally. Many of them use it themselves to break up a cold and prevent pneumonia. It is the only natural and rational way of curing catarrh.

This treatment has been so successful, curing 99 per cent. of all who have used it, that Hyomei is now sold by Sturm & Wilson under an absolute guarantee to refund the money if it does not cure.

PETER THE GREAT.

History shows that the Old Ruler of Russia was a monster. Years ago, when a low standard of morals prevailed, the czar, Peter the Great, was bestowed upon his subjects. He was a man of war, a conqueror, a warrior and a ruler. He made his nation formidable by its brute strength and full treasury. Even if he was a bad man they eulogized him as a good ruler. Peter the Great is called Peter the Great because he transformed a barbarous into a semibarbarous nation. But no one can now read the following summary of his character without a feeling of disgust. Voltaire, in his "Philosophical Dictionary," says that "Peter was half hero and half tiger." Macaulay declares that "to the end of his life he lived in his palace like a hog in a sty, and when he was entertained by other sovereigns never failed to leave an unequivocal proof that a savage had been there."

Peter, when the fit was on him, literally caned everybody—from his cook to his counselor, from the meanest peasant to the highest noble—sparing neither age nor sex. He would get up from the table and fog the host who was entertaining him. He would stand at the door of the senate house and fog each senator that went in. Lefort was an intimate and trusted friend, yet on slight provocation he was knocked down and brutally kicked by his imperial master. But all this fogging was in the way of recreation. When Peter meant business it was a more serious matter. Incredible as it may seem, it is nevertheless well authenticated that one of his own sisters—it is said more than one—received 100 strokes of the whip on her back in the presence of the whole court.

In 1713 Alexis, his only son who outlived infancy, was for some offense of no great seriousness several times tortured in the presence of the diabolical father and in the end died either from the effect of the torture or by accidental means. For sympathizing with Alexis the Princess Golitsyn, the bosom companion of the Empress Catherine, was publicly whipped by soldiers. For the same reason the brother of his first wife, Eudoxia—who he had thrown into prison—was tortured and then torn in pieces on the wheel. Nothing ever told of Nero is more horribly grotesque than this, yet this man or monster rather, is paraded before the world as Peter the Great.

SUCCESS THOUGHTS.

The best in others will only come out to meet the best in you.

The man with an idea has ever changed the face of the world.

One reason why we do not make the most of the winning material in ourselves is because of a magnified idea of the great superiority of others who do things in the world.

As a rule no good comes from criticizing others. Anybody can do that but the man who can accept his own honest estimate of himself and resolve to profit by it has achieved something. No matter what you are doing, think your way. Don't go without thinking. Think everything out. Don't run without a schedule. Have a programme and go by it. Think! Think! Think! Success.

Mr. Noble's Promise Given.

In the early stages of his ministry the Rev. Mr. Noble preached for some time in a village in Maine. One day a committee called upon him to settle with him for his services, and after stammering awhile, signified to him that his further services were not desired. "What does this mean, gentlemen?" asked the parson. "Why," replied the spokesman, with some hesitation, "the people have got the impression that you are inclining to universal salvation." "Gentlemen," answered Mr. Noble, "I never have preached that doctrine, but if I ever should I promise to make the people of this town an exception."—Boston Herald.

Women and Pins.

It seemed as if it would take a whole paper of pins to mend that torn dress. The wearer appealed to her car neighbor. "Have you any pins?" she asked. The woman had none, but passed the query on, and in a little while every passenger was feeling along concealed edges and turning back lapels. At last sixteen pins were produced. Fourteen of them were contributed by men. "We never need them as much as the women, but somehow we carry them and they don't," said one of the latter.—New York Post.

Early Railroadings.

In the pioneer days of railroadings it was sometimes necessary for the freight conductor to run forward over the roofs of the cars to shout orders to the engineer. Traveling at night was generally avoided, though one road adopted the expedient of running ahead of the locomotive a flat car loaded with sand, on which a bonfire was kept burning as a headlight.

Seeing Double.

"You brute!" exclaimed Mrs. Lushley. "It makes my blood boil to see you come home in this condition." "My dear," said Lushley, "you look beautiful when y'r angry."

"Indeed?"

"Yeah. Anyhow, you shert'nly look doubly beautiful to me just now."

If we tell you of a country where you are sure of success, will you believe us? It is only necessary for you to farm the land and the best results will follow—a State which the government reports will show leads in the production of wheat. It also ranks among the first in the raising of corn, alfalfa, timothy and other products, together with stock raising. We speak of
